Junior League of Lufkin 2009-2010 Board Members

The Junior League of Lufkin, a women's volunteer organization committed to developing the potential of women and improving the community is pleased to announce its 2009-2010 Board of Directors. The Board will be lead by the new President Cindy Tierney.

The Junior League of Lufkin's theme for 2009-2010 is "Dedicated Women, Meaningful Work." Cindy believes that this statement concisely and accurately describes the group of volunteers. They are women with dedication and passion about what they do. The second part of the theme, Meaningful Work describes the impact in our community. The Junior League of Lufkin definitely has a rich history of service, and it is something every member should be proud of. This year, the League will add to the rich history through two new projects, Family Nights, and the CPS Rainbow Room. As a League, the focus is to "educate and empower individuals, primarily children, by providing the resources and tools that will address all aspects of their well being."

Cindy joined the Junior League as a volunteer member in 1999. Cindy has volunteered for Dance Camp, Rummage Sale, and spent several years working on the Career Conference Committee. In addition, she has served as Secretary and President-Elect.

In addition to Cindy Tierney, the Junior League of Lufkin's other new Board members for the 2009-2010 fiscal year are: President-Elect, Allyson Langston; Secretary, Emily Parks; Treasurer, Ashley Bowers; Parliamentarian, Shelly Slaton; V.P. Finance, Jennifer Webster; V.P. Communications, Stephanie Oliver; V.P. Membership, Marcy Weibe; V.P.
